

Wall of Fame

"ISCB members & Friends of ISCB"

Without all you devilish people this Ghoulish nite would not have risen from the grave so thank you to you all.....

Especially... Our adopted Club Mascot "Super Nan" (courtesy of the Fitzpatrick family), our fright-fully good families: Fitzpatricks (Wendi our very own Leonardo Divinci), Clohesys (craft extraordinaire, fog makers, Tomb Makers), Browells (she may have been Wednesday, but by jingo she worked on those decorations ALL week), Botheras' clan, T Norris & family – Coffin makers, Castlemaine.....

You are all-round wicked creatures!!!!

Also on the night: Erin (our fun-tastic bootlady extraordinaire – knock em dead girlfriend – oh la la!), Jemma (cutest kiosk chick of the night - soz Nan), Tank (greatest ever gravedigger), Daniel Dracula (thanks for the blood donation for the tombstones), Jack o Lantern carvers: Morgan & Dentist person (now THAT was scary), (Monkey Woman) Kristy Botheras (how did she get those skeletons suspended above the ice?), Kass and the crew (next year Monster Mash / Time Warp, or something really scary – maybe a medley of show tunes from the Sound of Music?) Adam, you're a great helper but sorry Addo, still ugly as ever, (should have got a mask mate – you were scaring the little ones).

Thanks also to the following costumed people who attended to make the night such a success: Zombies; from near and far, Bendigo, Castlemaine & Keilor, Dr Who (pretty cool – we'll have to get Super Nan to knit you a striped scarf), Corpse bride (said she was going out the front to the grave yard to dig herself up a husband), Wizards & Witches Coven (someone left their broom stick behind), the cat who kept coughing up fur balls and mice all over the visitors (gulp!). Thumbs up to the vampires, goblins, spooks, black cats, bats (yeah, the witches - lol) and the bats (hanging ones too). Hey that guy who was fitted out and working the room as a photographer – he really was! (Thanks for the great shots Steve, we put ours in a separate album – not that that's not half obvious, ours are the blurry ones)!

To all the ghostly spirits that entertained us with their presence, you all were Fright.-Tastic - Thank you!

P.S. Word's out that Akuna Digital Photography managed to catch more than the "invited guests" on the evening (? lots of light orbs, and spooky images in the grand stands)

- check out the pics yourself – www.iscb.org.au

Mwah ha haha ha!

"Frite Nite – Hal I loween on Ice – 31st Oct, 2008"